FOREWORD

The Thorpland Cemetery of the Sinclair Family is located at Thorpland Farm on Victory Boulevard, Route 171, York County, Tabb, Virginia, on the property of George L. Smith and the late Carolyn Lawson Sinclair Smith. It is one of the oldest family cemeteries on the Peninsula.

The identification and location of all known graves at Thorpland Cemetery was completed in August 1983 by Peggy Diehl Candler and Nancy Diehl Deems, granddaughters of Charles Lockey Sinclair and Clara Emilie Nicol Sinclair buried at Thorpland in 1956 and 1967. The earliest identifiable graves are of Charles Lockey Collier, died Nov 1863, and of Roena Matilda Sinclair, died 16 Apr 1873. It is believed that there may be several unmarked graves located along the back west wall of the cemetery. These graves were said to have been marked with large rocks for many years until the rocks were thrown over the fence because they made the upkeep of the grounds troublesome.

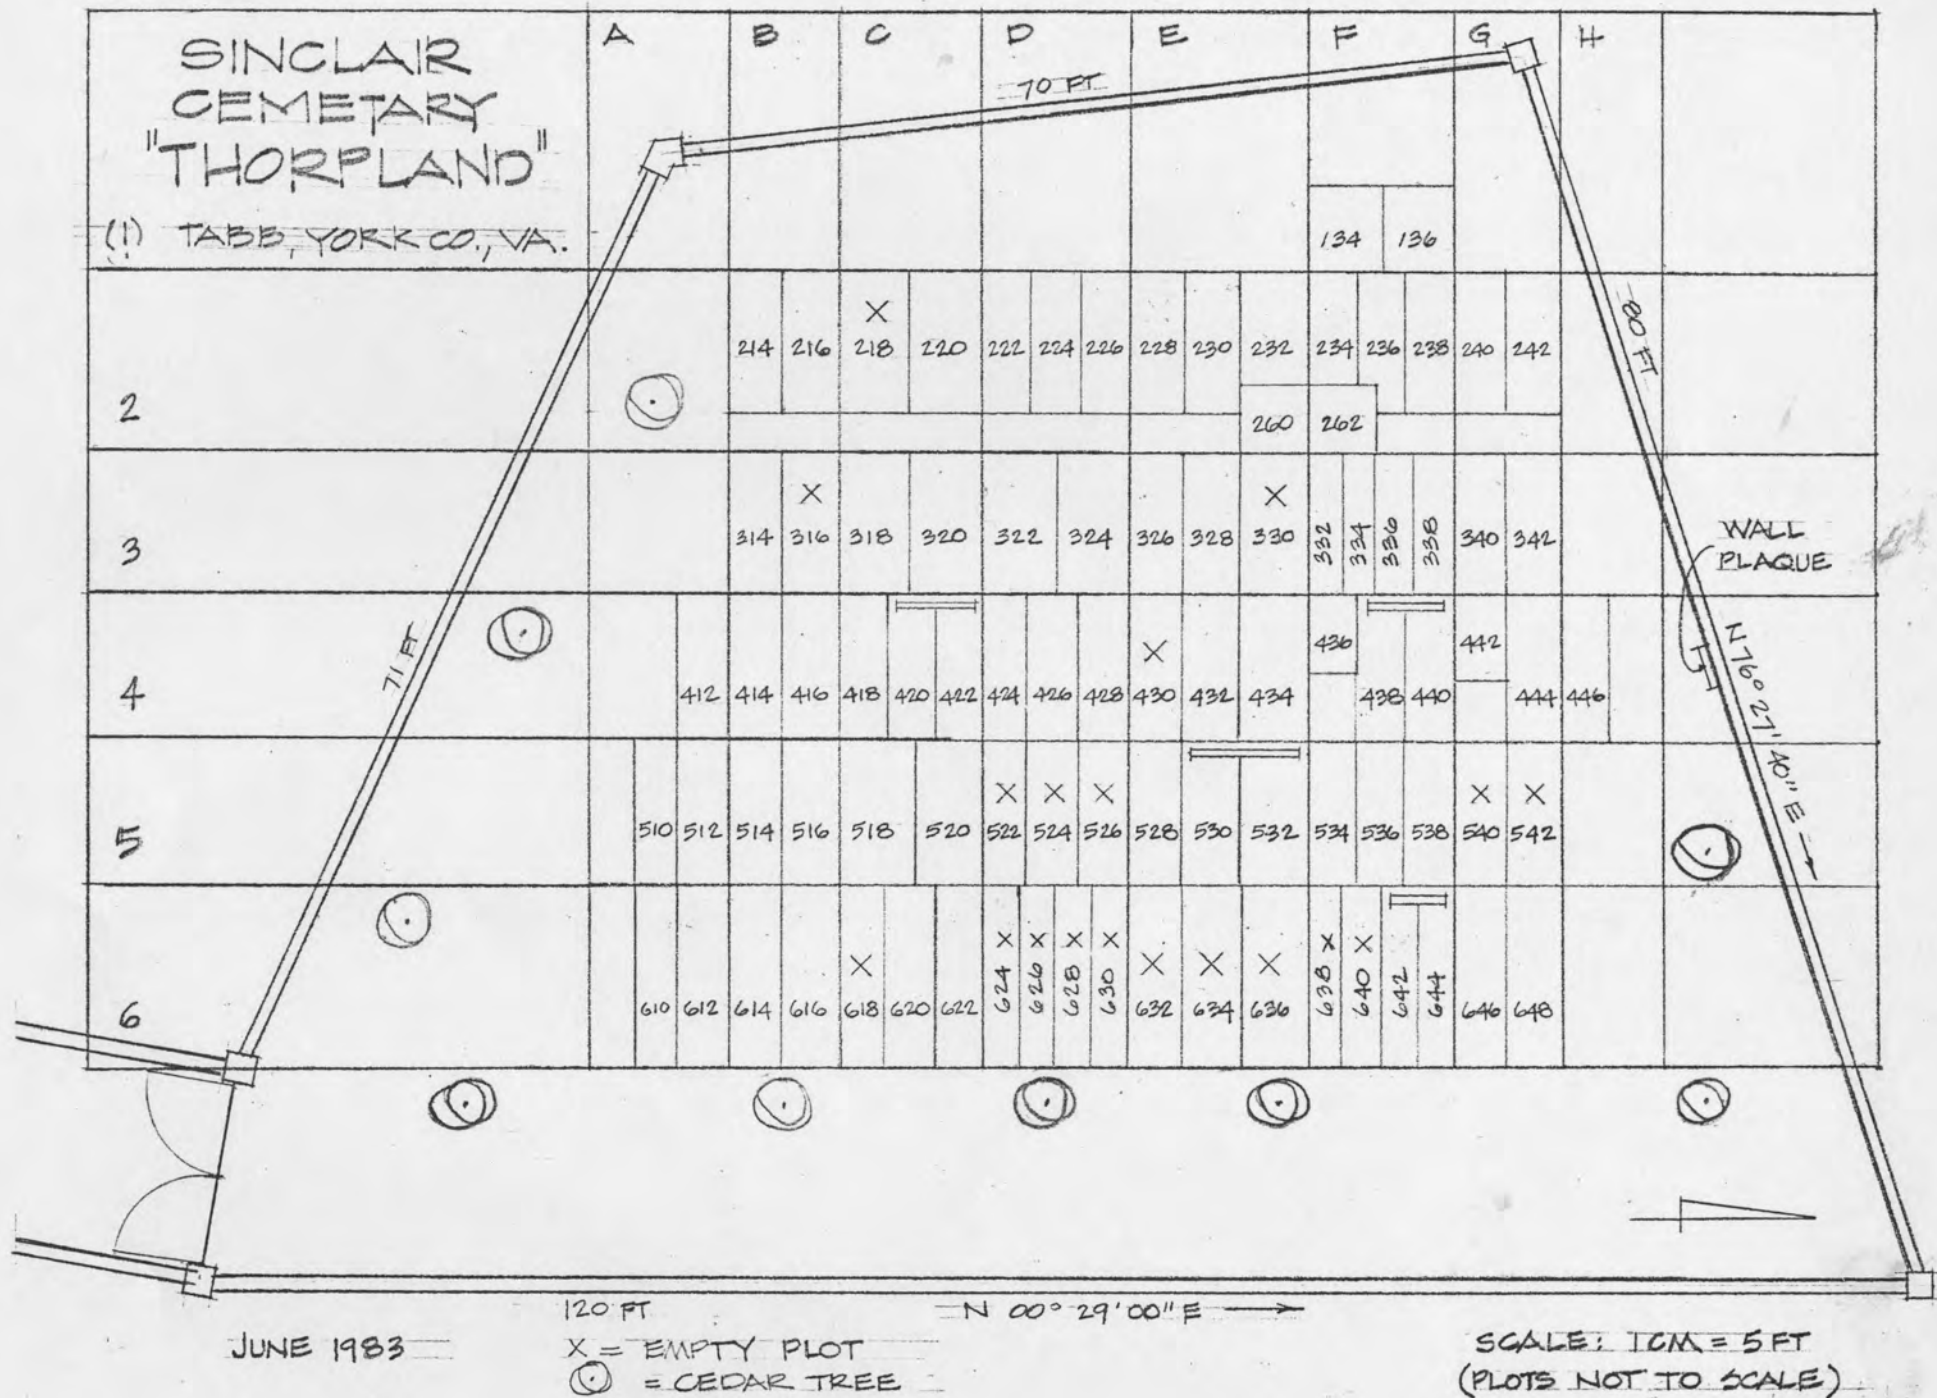

The cemetery at Thorpland is nestled in a grove of cedar trees with a large ditch bordering the south and west sides. The white picket fence surrounding the cemetery was replaced in 1964 by the Sinclair family with a high brick wall on which is a plaque in memory of "Dr. Fay" Fayette Allen Sinclair, MD. The maintenance of the cemetery is provided by the many families of relatives buried at Thorpland.

The original land grant of Thorpland was given in 1631 by the Colonial Government of His Majesty King Charles I of England to Sir Christopher Calthrop. The property was thus named after the Calthrop family. Through the generations Thorpland has been the property of the Calthrops, the Howards, and the Sinclairs. Henry Stuart Sinclair was buying Thorpland when he died in 1872. Edwin Sinclair, age 19 and son of Fayette Sinclair, Henry's brother, went to work the farm at Thorpland upon the death of his uncle. Edwin later purchased the property, farm, cattle and inventory included, for what it had originally cost his Uncle Henry. The family of Edwin Sinclair's granddaughter, the late Carolyn Lawson Sinclair Smith, still owns the property.

The list of all Sinclair descendants buried at Thorpland was compiled directly from the tombstones in August 1983 and updated as of April 1989. The list is given in three forms: in order of plot location, alphabetically by last name, and by date of death. Discrepancies are noted in parentheses, "( )", as taken from The Sinclair Family of Virginia, Descendants of Henry Sinclair Born in Aberdeen, Scotland, by Jefferson Sinclair Selden, Jr., copyright 1964.

Our family genealogical history is our legacy.
